STATE NOTICES

California Residents: If married you may apply for a separate account.

Ohio Residents: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

Married Wisconsin Residents: No agreement, unilateral statement or court decree relating to marital property adversely affects a creditor's interest unless prior to the time credit is granted the creditor is furnished a copy of the agreement, statement or decree, or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision. If the credit for which you are applying is granted, your spouse will also receive notification that credit has been extended to you.

New York, Rhode Island and Vermont Residents: Consumer reports (credit reports) may be obtained in connection with this application. If you request: 1) You will be informed whether or not consumer reports were obtained; and 2) If consumer reports were obtained, you will be informed of the names and addresses of the consumer reporting agencies (credit bureaus) that furnished the reports. If this application for credit is approved, you authorize LAL LLC.* to request and use subsequent consumer reports in connection with (a) renewals or extensions of this credit; (b) reviewing your credit; (c) for the purpose of taking collection action on this extension of credit; or (d) other legitimate reasons associated with this extension of credit.
